THE WEEKLY WORD

ST. JOHN'S LUTHERAN CHURCH & SCHOOL

MEDITATION

Luke 10:1-20

Luke chapter 10 reveals the details during the middle of Jesus' public ministry. In Luke's previous chapter, Jesus warned His followers about the cost of following Him. In this week's text Jesus sends His people to deliver the message that would change the world. This isn't yet the message of the Great Commission, "Go and make disciples of all nations....". Nonetheless, the Savior sends out the "72" like lambs among the wolves. In the midst of an angry and hostile world, Jesus sends workers into the plentiful harvest fields with His protection and promise of peace for those who listened to their message. Listening to their message meant that they were receiving Jesus and those receiving to Jesus meant they were listening to the Father. Jesus sends us out in this day and age in order to proclaim His peace that passes all understanding.

PRAYER

Jesus, You are the Lord of the Harvest. The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. You sow Your Truth into all the world. While it might be sown into the many types of soils, it finds true growth in the good soil where it is received and nurtured. We pray that You would prepare the hearts and minds of those who will carry Your message into all the world. May Your protection and promise give us confidence and encouragement until the time when You come again in glory. Amen

Pastor Snow
